

CASE NO. 6:20-cv-00423-JFH

Response: All records related to the disposition of these animals have been provided. They were given away free of charge to local farmers that responded to a Craigslist ad. The emails related to this transaction are encrypted through Craigslist's software and Defendants are unable to retrieve any information regarding these transactions.

3. Accurate and complete disposition record for the sloth (or an attestation that the name on the disposition form is the recipient's full legal name).

Response: Christine Jane Harkey is the full legal name of the recipient.

4. Accurate and complete disposition record for the two skunks.

Response: The skunks were given away free of charge to a local farmer that responded to a Craigslist ad. The emails related to this transaction are encrypted through Craigslist's software and Defendants are unable to retrieve any information regarding these transactions.

5. Disposition record for "Filet."

Response: Filet was transferred to Tiger Haven. The name was inadvertently omitted from the disposition form, but his name was included on the health certificate, which has been provided to the government.

6. Accurate and complete disposition and/or acquisition records for "Mia."

Response: Mia has been on inventory since we accepted all cats from Joseph Maldonado-Passage. The government has been provided with accurate and complete disposition and acquisition records.

Respectfully Submitted,
